

Operation Water Spirit Group Presentation Newscast Evaluation

Name: _____ Task: _____

Group being evaluated: _____

Total out of 20 marks _____ x 5 = _____ % Date _____

CATEGORY	5	4	3	2
Quality of presentation	Captivated interest of the class. Provided a clear precise picture.	Captivated some interest of the class. Clear picture.	Occasionally captivated interest of the class.	Did not captivate interest of the class. Subject of presentation was unclear.
Organization of presentation	There was a clear structure to the newscast. The process of the newscast was explained and sources were cited. Smooth delivery.	There was some structure to the newscast, the process was explained and some sources cited.	There was little structure to the presentation or newscast and any stated guidelines were not adhered to.	There was no clear organization or plan; students look as though they just "winged it". The newscast was jumpy.
Participation of Group members in the presentation	The entire group took turns presenting the topics and each provided insight on the topic presented. All members of the groups were in the newscast.	Most of the group took turns presenting the topics and some provided insight on the topic presented. $\frac{3}{4}$ of the group members were in the newscast.	Half the group were in the newscast and presented the topic and no other group members were involved in presentation.	One member presented the entire topic and no other group members were involved in presentation. There were one or two people in the newscast.
Time-management	Newscast was between 2- 3 minutes. Used time well throughout and got done in time allocated. Allowed for 2 minute discussion at end.	Newscast was 2- 3 minutes. Used time well throughout, but may have rushed on 1 or 2 points. Allowed time for discussion at end.	Newscast went well over 3 minutes. Presentation in time allocated but was unorganized and did not allow time for discussion.	Newscast under 2 minutes or well over 3 minutes. Presentation went over the time allocated or was very short of time allocated and there was no time for discussion.
MARKS				